

MANSFIELD CENTER (MANS)

MANS 103 - Elementary Persian-Farsi. 2-9 Credits.

The Defense Critical Language and Culture Program (DCLCP) (of The University of Montana's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center) provides intensive language and culture training for members of the National Guard, Reserve, and Active Duty utilizing a congressionally funded Language Training Center (LTC) contract through the Department of Defense Language and National Security Education Office (DLNSEO) —Grant title: Subaward 2013-LTC-Montana (H98210-13-2-0001). This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) total force language training needs in order to enable the DoD workforce to be better prepared and equipped with the target language, cultural and regional expertise. As a part of DoD Language Training Center, the course is open exclusively for U.S. DoD personnel who would not otherwise enroll into other UMT language course. This variable 2-9 credit Elementary Persian Farsi language course is designed for military students with no prior experience and is based on communicative teaching methods. This course entails total immersion in a Persian Farsi environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the introductory level to intermediate (levels 0 - 1).

MANS 104 - Elementary Levantine Arabic. 2-9 Credits.

The Defense Critical Language and Culture Program (DCLCP) (of The University of Montana's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center) provides intensive language and culture training for members of the National Guard, Reserve, and Active Duty utilizing a congressionally funded Language Training Center (LTC) contract through the Department of Defense Language and National Security Education Office (DLNSEO) —Grant title: Subaward 2013-LTC-Montana (H98210-13-2-0001). This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) total force language training needs in order to enable the DoD workforce to be better prepared and equipped with the target language, cultural and regional expertise. As a part of DoD Language Training Center, the course is open exclusively for U.S. DoD personnel who would not otherwise enroll into other UMT language course. This variable 2-9 credit Elementary Levantine Arabic language course is designed for military students with no prior experience and is based on communicative teaching methods. This course entails total immersion in a Levantine Arabic environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the introductory level to intermediate (levels 0 - 1).

MANS 105 - Elementary Modern Standard Arabic. 2-9 Credits.

This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) Total Force MSA language training needs, with an emphasis on the fifth group The Defense Critical Language and Culture Program (DCLCP) (of The University of Montana's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center) provides intensive language and culture training for members of the National Guard, Reserve, and Active Duty utilizing a congressionally funded Language Training Center (LTC) contract through the Department of Defense Language and National Security Education Office (DLNSEO) —Grant title: Subaward 2013-LTC-Montana (H98210-13-2-0001). This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) total force language training needs in order to enable the DoD workforce to be better prepared and equipped with the target language, cultural and regional expertise. As a part of DoD Language Training Center, the course is open exclusively for U.S. DoD personnel who would not otherwise enroll into other UMT language course. This variable 2-9 credit Elementary Modern Standard Arabic language course is designed for military students with no prior experience and is based on communicative teaching methods. This course entails total immersion in a Modern Standard Arabic environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the introductory level to intermediate (levels 0 - 1).

MANS 106 - Elementary Indonesian. 2-9 Credits.

The Defense Critical Language and Culture Program (DCLCP) (of The University of Montana's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center) provides intensive language and culture training for members of the National Guard, Reserve, and Active Duty utilizing a congressionally funded Language Training Center (LTC) contract through the Department of Defense Language and National Security Education Office (DLNSEO) —Grant title: Subaward 2013-LTC-Montana (H98210-13-2-0001). This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) total force language training needs in order to enable the DoD workforce to be better prepared and equipped with the target language, cultural and regional expertise. As a part of DoD Language Training Center, the course is open exclusively for U.S. DoD personnel who would not otherwise enroll into other UMT language course. This variable 2-9 credit Elementary Indonesian language course is designed for military students with no prior experience and is based on communicative teaching methods. This course entails total immersion in an Indonesian environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the introductory level to intermediate (levels 0 - 1).

MANS 107 - Elementary Korean. 2-9 Credits.

This variable 2-9 credit Elementary Korean language course is designed for military students with no prior experience and is based on communicative teaching methods. This course entails total immersion in a Korean environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the introductory level to intermediate (levels 0 - 1).

MANS 108 - Elementary Chinese Mandarin. 2-9 Credits.

The Defense Critical Language and Culture Program (DCLCP) (of The University of Montana's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center) provides intensive language and culture training for members of the National Guard, Reserve, and Active Duty utilizing a congressionally funded Language Training Center (LTC) contract through the Department of Defense Language and National Security Education Office (DLNSEO) —Grant title: Subaward 2013-LTC-Montana (H98210-13-2-0001). This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) total force language training needs in order to enable the DoD workforce to be better prepared and equipped with the target language, cultural and regional expertise. As a part of DoD Language Training Center, the course is open exclusively for U.S. DoD personnel who would not otherwise enroll into other UMT language course. This variable 2-9 credit Elementary Chinese Mandarin language course is designed for military students with no prior experience and is based on communicative teaching methods. This course entails total immersion in a Chinese environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the introductory level to intermediate (levels 0 - 1).

MANS 109 - Elementary Russian. 2-9 Credits.

The Defense Critical Language and Culture Program (DCLCP) (of The University of Montana's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center) provides intensive language and culture training for members of the National Guard, Reserve, and Active Duty utilizing a congressionally funded Language Training Center (LTC) contract through the Department of Defense Language and National Security Education Office (DLNSEO) —Grant title: Subaward 2013-LTC-Montana (H98210-13-2-0001). This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) total force language training needs in order to enable the DoD workforce to be better prepared and equipped with the target language, cultural and regional expertise. As a part of DoD Language Training Center, the course is open exclusively for U.S. DoD personnel who would not otherwise enroll into other UMT language course. This variable 2-9 credit Elementary Russian language course is designed for military students with no prior experience and is based on communicative teaching methods. This course entails total immersion in a Russian environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the introductory level to intermediate (levels 0 - 1).

MANS 110 - Elementary Spanish. 2-9 Credits.

The Defense Critical Language and Culture Program (DCLCP) (of The University of Montana's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center) provides intensive language and culture training for members of the National Guard, Reserve, and Active Duty utilizing a congressionally funded Language Training Center (LTC) contract through the Department of Defense Language and National Security Education Office (DLNSEO) —Grant title: Subaward 2013-LTC-Montana (H98210-13-2-0001). This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) total force language training needs in order to enable the DoD workforce to be better prepared and equipped with the target language, cultural and regional expertise. As a part of DoD Language Training Center, the course is open exclusively for U.S. DoD personnel who would not otherwise enroll into other UMT language course. This variable 2-9 credit Elementary Spanish language course is designed for military students with no prior experience and is based on communicative teaching methods. This course entails total immersion in a Spanish environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the introductory level to intermediate (levels 0 - 1).

MANS 111 - Elementary French. 2-9 Credits.

The Defense Critical Language and Culture Program (DCLCP) (of The University of Montana's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center) provides intensive language and culture training for members of the National Guard, Reserve, and Active Duty utilizing a congressionally funded Language Training Center (LTC) contract through the Department of Defense Language and National Security Education Office (DLNSEO) —Grant title: Subaward 2013-LTC-Montana (H98210-13-2-0001). This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) total force language training needs in order to enable the DoD workforce to be better prepared and equipped with the target language, cultural and regional expertise. As a part of DoD Language Training Center, the course is open exclusively for U.S. DoD personnel who would not otherwise enroll into other UMT language course. This variable 2-9 credit Elementary French language course is designed for military students with no prior experience and is based on communicative teaching methods. This course entails total immersion in a French environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the introductory level to intermediate (levels 0 - 1).

MANS 112 - Elementary Egyptian Arabic. 2-9 Credits.

The Defense Critical Language and Culture Program (DCLCP) (of The University of Montana's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center) provides intensive language and culture training for members of the National Guard, Reserve, and Active Duty utilizing a congressionally funded Language Training Center (LTC) contract through the Department of Defense Language and National Security Education Office (DLNSEO) —Grant title: Subaward 2013-LTC-Montana (H98210-13-2-0001). This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) total force language training needs in order to enable the DoD workforce to be better prepared and equipped with the target language, cultural and regional expertise. As a part of DoD Language Training Center, the course is open exclusively for U.S. DoD personnel who would not otherwise enroll into other UMT language course. This variable 2-9 credit Elementary Egyptian Arabic language course is designed for military students with no prior experience and is based on communicative teaching methods. This course entails total immersion in an Egyptian Arabic environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the introductory level to intermediate (levels 0 - 1).

MANS 195 - Special Topics. 1-9 Credits.

(R-12) Offered intermittently. Prereq., consent of instr. Experimental offerings of new courses or one-time offerings of current topics.

MANS 203 - Intermediate Persian-Farsi. 2-9 Credits.

The Defense Critical Language and Culture Program (DCLCP) (of The University of Montana's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center) provides intensive language and culture training for members of the National Guard, Reserve, and Active Duty utilizing a congressionally funded Language Training Center (LTC) contract through the Department of Defense Language and National Security Education Office (DLNSEO) —Grant title: Subaward 2013-LTC-Montana (H98210-13-2-0001). This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) total force language training needs in order to enable the DoD workforce to be better prepared and equipped with the target language, cultural and regional expertise. As a part of DoD Language Training Center, the course is open exclusively for U.S. DoD personnel who would not otherwise enroll into other UMT language course. This variable 2-9 credit Intermediate Persian Farsi course is designed for military students who have reached the proficiency level 0+/0+ on the Interagency Language Roundtable (ILR) scale. This course entails a total immersion in a Persian Farsi environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the intermediate level to intermediate high (levels 0+ - 1+).

MANS 204 - Intermediate Levantine Arabic. 2-9 Credits.

The Defense Critical Language and Culture Program (DCLCP) (of The University of Montana's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center) provides intensive language and culture training for members of the National Guard, Reserve, and Active Duty utilizing a congressionally funded Language Training Center (LTC) contract through the Department of Defense Language and National Security Education Office (DLNSEO) —Grant title: Subaward 2013-LTC-Montana (H98210-13-2-0001). This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) total force language training needs in order to enable the DoD workforce to be better prepared and equipped with the target language, cultural and regional expertise. As a part of DoD Language Training Center, the course is open exclusively for U.S. DoD personnel who would not otherwise enroll into other UMT language course. This variable 2-9 credit Intermediate Levantine Arabic course is designed for military students who have reached the proficiency level 0+/0+ on the Interagency Language Roundtable (ILR) scale. This course entails a total immersion in a Levantine Arabic environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the intermediate level to intermediate high (levels 0+ - 1+).

MANS 205 - Intermediate Modern Standard Arabic. 2-9 Credits.

This variable 2-9 credit Intermediate Modern Standard Arabic course is designed for military students who have reached the proficiency level 0+/0+ on the Interagency Language Roundtable (ILR) scale. This course entails a total immersion in a Modern Standard Arabic environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the intermediate level to intermediate high (levels 0+ - 1+).

MANS 206 - Intermediate Indonesian. 2-9 Credits.

The Defense Critical Language and Culture Program (DCLCP) (of The University of Montana's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center) provides intensive language and culture training for members of the National Guard, Reserve, and Active Duty utilizing a congressionally funded Language Training Center (LTC) contract through the Department of Defense Language and National Security Education Office (DLNSEO) —Grant title: Subaward 2013-LTC-Montana (H98210-13-2-0001). This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) total force language training needs in order to enable the DoD workforce to be better prepared and equipped with the target language, cultural and regional expertise. As a part of DoD Language Training Center, the course is open exclusively for U.S. DoD personnel who would not otherwise enroll into other UMT language course. This variable 2-9 credit Intermediate Indonesian course is designed for military students who have reached the proficiency level 0+/0+ on the Interagency Language Roundtable (ILR) scale. This course entails a total immersion in an Indonesian environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the intermediate level to intermediate high (levels 0+ - 1+).

MANS 207 - Intermediate Korean. 2-9 Credits.

The Defense Critical Language and Culture Program (DCLCP) (of The University of Montana's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center) provides intensive language and culture training for members of the National Guard, Reserve, and Active Duty utilizing a congressionally funded Language Training Center (LTC) contract through the Department of Defense Language and National Security Education Office (DLNSEO) —Grant title: Subaward 2013-LTC-Montana (H98210-13-2-0001). This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) total force language training needs in order to enable the DoD workforce to be better prepared and equipped with the target language, cultural and regional expertise. As a part of DoD Language Training Center, the course is open exclusively for U.S. DoD personnel who would not otherwise enroll into other UMT language course. This variable 2-9 credit Intermediate Korean course is designed for military students who have reached the proficiency level 0+/0+ on the Interagency Language Roundtable (ILR) scale. This course entails a total immersion in a Korean environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the intermediate level to intermediate high (levels 0+ - 1+).

MANS 208 - Intermediate Chinese Mandarin. 2-9 Credits.

The Defense Critical Language and Culture Program (DCLCP) (of The University of Montana's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center) provides intensive language and culture training for members of the National Guard, Reserve, and Active Duty utilizing a congressionally funded Language Training Center (LTC) contract through the Department of Defense Language and National Security Education Office (DLNSEO) —Grant title: Subaward 2013-LTC-Montana (H98210-13-2-0001). This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) total force language training needs in order to enable the DoD workforce to be better prepared and equipped with the target language, cultural and regional expertise. As a part of DoD Language Training Center, the course is open exclusively for U.S. DoD personnel who would not otherwise enroll into other UMT language course. This variable 2-9 credit Intermediate Chinese Mandarin course is designed for military students who have reached the proficiency level 0+/0+ on the Interagency Language Roundtable (ILR) scale. This course entails a total immersion in a Chinese Mandarin environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the intermediate level to intermediate high (levels 0+ - 1+).

MANS 209 - Intermediate Russian. 2-9 Credits.

The Defense Critical Language and Culture Program (DCLCP) (of The University of Montana's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center) provides intensive language and culture training for members of the National Guard, Reserve, and Active Duty utilizing a congressionally funded Language Training Center (LTC) contract through the Department of Defense Language and National Security Education Office (DLNSEO) —Grant title: Subaward 2013-LTC-Montana (H98210-13-2-0001). This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) total force language training needs in order to enable the DoD workforce to be better prepared and equipped with the target language, cultural and regional expertise. As a part of DoD Language Training Center, the course is open exclusively for U.S. DoD personnel who would not otherwise enroll into other UMT language course. This variable 2-9 credit Intermediate Russian course is designed for military students who have reached the proficiency level 0+/0+ on the Interagency Language Roundtable (ILR) scale. This course entails a total immersion in a Russian environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the intermediate level to intermediate high (levels 0+ - 1+).

MANS 210 - Intermediate Spanish. 2-9 Credits.

The Defense Critical Language and Culture Program (DCLCP) (of The University of Montana's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center) provides intensive language and culture training for members of the National Guard, Reserve, and Active Duty utilizing a congressionally funded Language Training Center (LTC) contract through the Department of Defense Language and National Security Education Office (DLNSEO) —Grant title: Subaward 2013-LTC-Montana (H98210-13-2-0001). This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) total force language training needs in order to enable the DoD workforce to be better prepared and equipped with the target language, cultural and regional expertise. As a part of DoD Language Training Center, the course is open exclusively for U.S. DoD personnel who would not otherwise enroll into other UMT language course. This variable 2-9 credit Intermediate Spanish course is designed for military students who have reached the proficiency level 0+/0+ on the Interagency Language Roundtable (ILR) scale. This course entails a total immersion in a Spanish environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the intermediate level to intermediate high (levels 0+ - 1+).

MANS 211 - Intermediate French. 2-9 Credits.

The Defense Critical Language and Culture Program (DCLCP) (of The University of Montana's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center) provides intensive language and culture training for members of the National Guard, Reserve, and Active Duty utilizing a congressionally funded Language Training Center (LTC) contract through the Department of Defense Language and National Security Education Office (DLNSEO) —Grant title: Subaward 2013-LTC-Montana (H98210-13-2-0001). This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) total force language training needs in order to enable the DoD workforce to be better prepared and equipped with the target language, cultural and regional expertise. As a part of DoD Language Training Center, the course is open exclusively for U.S. DoD personnel who would not otherwise enroll into other UMT language course. This variable 2-9 credit Intermediate French course is designed for military students who have reached the proficiency level 0+/0+ on the Interagency Language Roundtable (ILR) scale. This course entails a total immersion in a French environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the intermediate level to intermediate high (levels 0+ - 1+).

MANS 212 - Intermediate Egyptian Arabic. 2-9 Credits.

The Defense Critical Language and Culture Program (DCLCP) (of The University of Montana's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center) provides intensive language and culture training for members of the National Guard, Reserve, and Active Duty utilizing a congressionally funded Language Training Center (LTC) contract through the Department of Defense Language and National Security Education Office (DLNSEO) —Grant title: Subaward 2013-LTC-Montana (H98210-13-2-0001). This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) total force language training needs in order to enable the DoD workforce to be better prepared and equipped with the target language, cultural and regional expertise. As a part of DoD Language Training Center, the course is open exclusively for U.S. DoD personnel who would not otherwise enroll into other UMT language course. This variable 2-9 credit Intermediate Egyptian Arabic course is designed for military students who have reached the proficiency level 0+/0+ on the Interagency Language Roundtable (ILR) scale. This course entails a total immersion in a Egyptian Arabic environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the intermediate level to intermediate high (levels 0+ - 1+).

MANS 295 - Special Topics. 1-9 Credits.

(R-12) Offered intermittently. Prereq., consent of instr. Experimental offerings of new courses or one-time offerings of current topics.

MANS 296 - Independent Study. 1-6 Credits.

(R-6) Offered intermittently.

MANS 303 - Advanced Persian Farsi. 2-9 Credits.

The Defense Critical Language and Culture Program (DCLCP) (of The University of Montana's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center) provides intensive language and culture training for members of the National Guard, Reserve, and Active Duty utilizing a congressionally funded Language Training Center (LTC) contract through the Department of Defense Language and National Security Education Office (DLNSEO) —Grant title: Subaward 2013-LTC-Montana (H98210-13-2-0001). This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) total force language training needs in order to enable the DoD workforce to be better prepared and equipped with the target language, cultural and regional expertise. As a part of DoD Language Training Center, the course is open exclusively for U.S. DoD personnel who would not otherwise enroll into other UMT language course. This variable 2-9 credit Advanced Persian Farsi course is designed for military students who have reached the proficiency level 1+/1+ on the Interagency Language Roundtable (ILR) scale. This course entails a total immersion in a Persian Farsi environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the intermediate high level to advanced (levels 1+ - 2).

MANS 304 - Advanced Levantine Arabic. 2-9 Credits.

The Defense Critical Language and Culture Program (DCLCP) (of The University of Montana's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center) provides intensive language and culture training for members of the National Guard, Reserve, and Active Duty utilizing a congressionally funded Language Training Center (LTC) contract through the Department of Defense Language and National Security Education Office (DLNSEO) —Grant title: Subaward 2013-LTC-Montana (H98210-13-2-0001). This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) total force language training needs in order to enable the DoD workforce to be better prepared and equipped with the target language, cultural and regional expertise. As a part of DoD Language Training Center, the course is open exclusively for U.S. DoD personnel who would not otherwise enroll into other UMT language course. This variable 2-9 credit Advanced Levantine Arabic course is designed for military students who have reached the proficiency level 1+/1+ on the Interagency Language Roundtable (ILR) scale. This course entails a total immersion in a Levantine Arabic environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the intermediate high level to advanced (levels 1+ - 2).

MANS 305 - Advanced Modern Standard Arabic. 2-9 Credits.

The Defense Critical Language and Culture Program (DCLCP) (of The University of Montana's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center) provides intensive language and culture training for members of the National Guard, Reserve, and Active Duty utilizing a congressionally funded Language Training Center (LTC) contract through the Department of Defense Language and National Security Education Office (DLNSEO) —Grant title: Subaward 2013-LTC-Montana (H98210-13-2-0001). This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) total force language training needs in order to enable the DoD workforce to be better prepared and equipped with the target language, cultural and regional expertise. As a part of DoD Language Training Center, the course is open exclusively for U.S. DoD personnel who would not otherwise enroll into other UMT language course. This variable 2-9 credit Advanced Modern Standard Arabic course is designed for military students who have reached the proficiency level 1+/1+ on the Interagency Language Roundtable (ILR) scale. This course entails a total immersion in a Modern Standard Arabic environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the intermediate high level to advanced (levels 1+ - 2).

MANS 306 - Advanced Indonesian. 2-9 Credits.

The Defense Critical Language and Culture Program (DCLCP) (of The University of Montana's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center) provides intensive language and culture training for members of the National Guard, Reserve, and Active Duty utilizing a congressionally funded Language Training Center (LTC) contract through the Department of Defense Language and National Security Education Office (DLNSEO) —Grant title: Subaward 2013-LTC-Montana (H98210-13-2-0001). This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) total force language training needs in order to enable the DoD workforce to be better prepared and equipped with the target language, cultural and regional expertise. As a part of DoD Language Training Center, the course is open exclusively for U.S. DoD personnel who would not otherwise enroll into other UMT language course. This variable 2-9 credit Advanced Indonesian course is designed for military students who have reached the proficiency level 1+/1+ on the Interagency Language Roundtable (ILR) scale. This course entails a total immersion in an Indonesian environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the intermediate high level to advanced (levels 1+ - 2).

MANS 307 - Advanced Korean. 2-9 Credits.

The Defense Critical Language and Culture Program (DCLCP) (of The University of Montana's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center) provides intensive language and culture training for members of the National Guard, Reserve, and Active Duty utilizing a congressionally funded Language Training Center (LTC) contract through the Department of Defense Language and National Security Education Office (DLNSEO) —Grant title: Subaward 2013-LTC-Montana (H98210-13-2-0001). This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) total force language training needs in order to enable the DoD workforce to be better prepared and equipped with the target language, cultural and regional expertise. As a part of DoD Language Training Center, the course is open exclusively for U.S. DoD personnel who would not otherwise enroll into other UMT language course. This variable 2-9 credit Advanced Korean course is designed for military students who have reached the proficiency level 1+/1+ on the Interagency Language Roundtable (ILR) scale. This course entails a total immersion in a Korean environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the intermediate high level to advanced (levels 1+ - 2).

MANS 308 - Advanced Chinese Mandarin. 2-9 Credits.

The Defense Critical Language and Culture Program (DCLCP) (of The University of Montana's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center) provides intensive language and culture training for members of the National Guard, Reserve, and Active Duty utilizing a congressionally funded Language Training Center (LTC) contract through the Department of Defense Language and National Security Education Office (DLNSEO) —Grant title: Subaward 2013-LTC-Montana (H98210-13-2-0001). This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) total force language training needs in order to enable the DoD workforce to be better prepared and equipped with the target language, cultural and regional expertise. As a part of DoD Language Training Center, the course is open exclusively for U.S. DoD personnel who would not otherwise enroll into other UMT language course. This variable 2-9 credit Advanced Chinese Mandarin course is designed for military students who have reached the proficiency level 1+/1+ on the Interagency Language Roundtable (ILR) scale. This course entails a total immersion in a Chinese Mandarin environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the intermediate high level to advanced (levels 1+ - 2).

MANS 309 - Advanced Russian. 2-9 Credits.

The Defense Critical Language and Culture Program (DCLCP) (of The University of Montana's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center) provides intensive language and culture training for members of the National Guard, Reserve, and Active Duty utilizing a congressionally funded Language Training Center (LTC) contract through the Department of Defense Language and National Security Education Office (DLNSEO) —Grant title: Subaward 2013-LTC-Montana (H98210-13-2-0001). This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) total force language training needs in order to enable the DoD workforce to be better prepared and equipped with the target language, cultural and regional expertise. As a part of DoD Language Training Center, the course is open exclusively for U.S. DoD personnel who would not otherwise enroll into other UMT language course. This variable 2-9 credit Advanced Russian course is designed for military students who have reached the proficiency level 1+/1+ on the Interagency Language Roundtable (ILR) scale. This course entails a total immersion in a Russian environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the intermediate high level to advanced (levels 1+ - 2).

MANS 310 - Advanced Spanish. 2-9 Credits.

The Defense Critical Language and Culture Program (DCLCP) (of The University of Montana's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center) provides intensive language and culture training for members of the National Guard, Reserve, and Active Duty utilizing a congressionally funded Language Training Center (LTC) contract through the Department of Defense Language and National Security Education Office (DLNSEO) —Grant title: Subaward 2013-LTC-Montana (H98210-13-2-0001). This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) total force language training needs in order to enable the DoD workforce to be better prepared and equipped with the target language, cultural and regional expertise. As a part of DoD Language Training Center, the course is open exclusively for U.S. DoD personnel who would not otherwise enroll into other UMT language course. This variable 2-9 credit Advanced Spanish course is designed for military students who have reached the proficiency level 1+/1+ on the Interagency Language Roundtable (ILR) scale. This course entails a total immersion in a Spanish environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the intermediate high level to advanced (levels 1+ - 2).

MANS 311 - Advanced French. 2-9 Credits.

The Defense Critical Language and Culture Program (DCLCP) (of The University of Montana's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center) provides intensive language and culture training for members of the National Guard, Reserve, and Active Duty utilizing a congressionally funded Language Training Center (LTC) contract through the Department of Defense Language and National Security Education Office (DLNSEO) —Grant title: Subaward 2013-LTC-Montana (H98210-13-2-0001). This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) total force language training needs in order to enable the DoD workforce to be better prepared and equipped with the target language, cultural and regional expertise. As a part of DoD Language Training Center, the course is open exclusively for U.S. DoD personnel who would not otherwise enroll into other UMT language course. This variable 2-9 credit Advanced French course is designed for military students who have reached the proficiency level 1+/1+ on the Interagency Language Roundtable (ILR) scale. This course entails a total immersion in a French environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the intermediate high level to advanced (levels 1+ - 2).

MANS 312 - Advanced Egyptian Arabic. 2-9 Credits.

The Defense Critical Language and Culture Program (DCLCP) (of The University of Montana's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center) provides intensive language and culture training for members of the National Guard, Reserve, and Active Duty utilizing a congressionally funded Language Training Center (LTC) contract through the Department of Defense Language and National Security Education Office (DLNSEO) —Grant title: Subaward 2013-LTC-Montana (H98210-13-2-0001). This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) total force language training needs in order to enable the DoD workforce to be better prepared and equipped with the target language, cultural and regional expertise. As a part of DoD Language Training Center, the course is open exclusively for U.S. DoD personnel who would not otherwise enroll into other UMT language course. This variable 2-9 credit Advanced Egyptian Arabic course is designed for military students who have reached the proficiency level 1+/1+ on the Interagency Language Roundtable (ILR) scale. This course entails a total immersion in a Egyptian Arabic environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the intermediate high level to advanced (levels 1+ - 2).

MANS 395 - Special Topics. 1-9 Credits.

(R-12) Offered intermittently. Prereq., consent of instr. Experimental offerings of visiting professors, experimental offerings of new courses, or one-time offerings of current topics.

MANS 398 - Internship. 1-6 Credits.MANS 405 - Superior Modern Standard Arabic. 2-9 Credits.

The Defense Critical Language and Culture Program (DCLCP) (of The University of Montana's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center) provides intensive language and culture training for members of the National Guard, Reserve, and Active Duty utilizing a congressionally funded Language Training Center (LTC) contract through the Department of Defense Language and National Security Education Office (DLNSEO) —Grant title: Subaward 2013-LTC-Montana (H98210-13-2-0001). This DCLCP course is designed to meet DoD (Department of Defense) total force language training needs in order to enable the DoD workforce to be better prepared and equipped with the target language, cultural and regional expertise. As a part of DoD Language Training Center, the course is open exclusively for U.S. DoD personnel who would not otherwise enroll into other UMT language course. This variable 2-9 credit Superior Modern Standard Arabic course is designed for military students who have reached the proficiency level 2+/3+ on the Interagency Language Roundtable (ILR) scale. This course entails a total immersion in a Modern Standard Arabic environment that will include four skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. Instruction will be conducted at the advanced low level to superior level (levels 2+ - 4+). Level: Undergraduate

MANS 494 - Mansfield Center Seminar. 1-9 Credits.

(R-9) Offered intermittently. Prereq., consent of instr. A review and discussion of current research. Topics vary. Level: Undergraduate-Graduate

MANS 495 - Special Topics. 1-9 Credits.

(R-9) Offered intermittently. Experimental offerings of visiting professors, experimental offerings of new courses, or one-time offerings of current topics. Level: Undergraduate-Graduate

MANS 496 - Independent Study. 1-6 Credits.

(R-6) Offered intermittently. Prereq., consent of instr. Course material appropriate to the needs and objectives of the individual student. Level: Undergraduate

MANS 595 - Special Topics. 1-12 Credits.

(R-12) Offered intermittently. Prereq., consent of instr. Experimental offerings of visiting professors, experimental offerings of new courses, or one-time offerings of current topics. Level: Graduate