

ALEXANDER BLEWETT III SCHOOL OF LAW

Elaine Gagliardi, Interim Dean

The Law School is accredited by the American Bar Association and the Association of American Law Schools, and offers the degree of Juris Doctor (J.D.). Prerequisites for admission to the Law School are a baccalaureate degree and Law School Admission Test.

For detailed information concerning the Law School's admission criteria, application procedures, facilities, and official course descriptions, consult the Law School website (<http://www.umt.edu/law/>).

The Law School's administrative regulations are contained in the Law School Student Handbook, which is on the website (<http://www.umt.edu/law/>). The Law School conforms in most instances to the calendar established for the entire University. There are some differences, however, because the Law School operates on a longer semester system than the rest of the University. The Law School academic calendar may also be found on the Law School website (<http://www.umt.edu/law/>).

- Juris Doctor (<http://catalog.umt.edu/law-programs/juris-doctor/>)
- American Indian Law Certificate (<http://catalog.umt.edu/law-programs/cert-american-indian-law/>)
- Natural Resources and Environmental Law Certificate (<http://catalog.umt.edu/law-programs/cert-natural-resources-environmental-law/>)